AGREEMENT GOVERNING ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

1. IDENTIFICATION OF PARTIES

This Agreement Governing Attorney's Fees and Costs, hereinafter referred to as "Agreement," is made between JOEL K. MITCHELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, hereafter referred to as "Attorney," and _____, hereinafter referred to as "Client" (collectively referred to as "Client" if a married couple filing jointly).

2. RESPONSIBILITIES OF ATTORNEY

Attorney will perform legal services relative to legal representation of Client in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. Client understands that if Client qualifies to file under Chapter 7 based on Attorney's determination and if Client provides Attorney with all documents listed in Section 4 of this Agreement, then Attorney will:

- A. meet with Client once in person to discuss Client's bankruptcy options and answer any reasonable questions Client has about bankruptcy;
- B. prepare client's Chapter 7 bankruptcy paperwork and forward by mail to client;
- C. make any changes or revisions to the prepared paperwork that Attorney deems necessary after Client has reviewed those documents and provided any feedback;
- D. file Client's bankruptcy paperwork and 1st credit counseling certificate electronically within no more than 10 days after receiving those items from Client if Client qualifies for bankruptcy and has completed his or her responsibilities under this Agreement;
- E. attend the "meeting of the creditors" court date with Client and attend any other court dates prior to closure of the case which it is necessary for Attorney to attend; however, if a 2nd or subsequent Court date is set because Client failed to appear the prior court date, then Attorney will not appear until Client has paid Attorney $200.00 in advance of said court date;
- F. execute any necessary reaffirmation agreements which Attorney determines to be in Client's best interests and that Client has the disposable income to pay toward going forward after bankruptcy;
- G. respond to any reasonable requests of the U.S. trustee, including but not limited to preparing and filing amendments;
- H. file electronically Client's 2nd credit counseling certificate within no more than 10 days after receiving it from Client;
- I. from the date retained until the date the case is closed, respond to client calls, e-mails and communications which are reasonable in content and amount.

Client understands that, under this Agreement, Attorney will NOT represent client in: (1) the bankruptcy case after it is closed, including but not limited to motions to reopen based on alleged fraud or Client's failure to complete the 2nd credit counseling course; (2) adversary proceedings cases or filed with the Bankruptcy Court to which debtor is a party, including but not limited to cases where a creditor alleges fraud or where debtor files an adversary proceeding seeking to charge student loans or other typically non-dischargeable debts; (3) any other Court cases, including but not limited to county or district court cases in which Client is being sued by a creditor for indebtedness or foreclosure, although Attorney will give an unrepresented Client his opinion on how Attorney believes Client should handle the case and Attorney will list in the bankruptcy those creditors, their attorneys, and the court clerks where those cases are pending, thereby giving those persons notice of the bankruptcy filing. If Client pays a separate, additional retainer not under this Agreement, Attorney will consider representing Client in an adversary proceeding or district/county court case.

Client understands that, under this Agreement, Attorney will NOT forward Client file-stamped copies of court documents filed in the case. In bankruptcy cases, all pleadings, documents, orders and notices are filed electronically and are, within three business days afterwards, mailed out by the Court Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court to all creditors, to Client, to Attorney, to the Judge, to the Trustee assigned to the case, and to the U.S. Trustee's Office.

Further, Client understands that because Attorney files bankruptcies with the bankruptcy courts electronically, Client will NOT receive a file-stamped copy of Client's bankruptcy papers. If Client desires a copy, Attorney shall at Client's request produce a copy of any document that was filed with the Court, although such copy will not be sealed, certified, or file-stamped.

Finally, Client understands and agrees that any documents, whether originals or copies, provided to Attorney pursuant to the bankruptcy case will not be returned to Client until the meeting of the creditors court date, or if Attorney deems necessary, not until the closure of the case. Accordingly, Client is encouraged to make copies of documents being provided to Attorney and to give Attorney the copies and to retain the originals of all such documents. In fact, Attorney encourages Client to keep originals of titles, taxes, and mortgage information.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES OF CLIENT. Under this Agreement, Client agrees to do and will do:

- A. Be truthful and honest with Attorney and the information provided to Attorney. Further, Client agrees to inform Attorney of anything Client thinks Attorney "ought to know".
- B. Advise Attorney of all property that Client has which Client believes to be worth more than $100.00, based on either resale value, garage sale value, or bluebook value.
- C. Inform Attorney of any property Client purchases or sells for more than $100.00 between the date of this Agreement and the closure of the bankruptcy case.
- D. Agree not to purchase, sell, transfer or deed any house, land or other real property at any time between the date of this Agreement and closure of this case, without first notifying Attorney.
- E. Agree not to purchase, sell, transfer or change title to any automobile, motorcycle, ATV, boat or other marine device, or other motorized property with a title at any time between the date of this Agreement and the closure of the bankruptcy case, without first notifying Attorney.
- F. Inform Attorney of changes in Client's employment or financial situation, providing updated income and expense documentation at Attorney's request.
- G. Advise honestly and accurately Attorney of all sources of income Client has, and to provide documentation for each such source which documentation is available to Client.
- H. Advise honestly and accurately of all persons, adults and children, relatives or not, with whom Client lives or resides, and to keep Attorney up-to-date of living situation changes.
- I. Inform Attorney of changes in Client's address and phone numbers.
- J. Complete the 1st credit counseling course within 90 days of this Agreement, deliver/fax/mail/e-mail to Attorney any certificate Client may receive from the credit counseling agency that documents completion of such course.
- K. Complete the 2nd credit counseling course within no more than 30 days after the first scheduled meeting of the creditors, which court date typically falls four to six weeks after the filing of Client's bankruptcy case, and e-mail/mail/fax/deliver to Attorney any certificate Client may receive from the credit counseling agency showing completion.
- L. Appear at the "meeting of the creditors" court date and any other court dates or events at which Attorney advises Client to appear or which the Court orders Client to appear.
- M. Provide Attorney with a copy of all documents listed in Section 4 of this Agreement within 90 days of this Agreement.
- N. Pay Attorney in accordance with Section 5 of this Agreement within no more than 120 days of this Agreement, unless Attorney and Client have expressly agreed to a longer time-period.

Client understands and agrees that a failure by Client to substantially and timely perform any of Client's Responsibilities listed anywhere in (A.), (B.), (C.), (D.), (E.), (F.), (G.), (H.), (I.), (J.), (K.) or (L.) above may result in Client's being unable to file for Chapter 7 bankruptcy relief or may negatively impact Client's existing bankruptcy case if already filed. Client understands that such a failure allows Attorney, if Attorney so chooses, to retain all funds paid by Client (except, if the case is not yet filed, Attorney will refund Client the $335 filing fee), and to no longer be obligated to perform work under this Agreement.

Client understand and agrees that if Client is late to or wholly fails to appear at a Court date scheduled in his or her case, as stated in earlier in subsection (L), Attorney cannot guarantee the success of the case; also, in the event Client is late or fails to appear at a Court date and as a result that Court date is rescheduled or continued to another date, then Client must advance Attorney an additional $200.00 prior to that next Court date. In such instance, this payment is required because Attorney would have to take his time and have up to a half-day consumed with going to Court again on Client's case due to Client's failure to appear or appear on time, regardless of the reason for the tardiness of failure to appear previously.

Client understands and agrees that if Client fails the requirement listed earlier in subsection (K.) in regard to timely completion of the 2nd credit counseling course, and Client wants to correct this situation caused Client's failure and to ensure that Client's discharge is not denied but the case is still active and the Court has not yet denied the discharge, Client must advance Attorney an additional $200.00 for Attorney to prepare the then-necessary Motion to Extend Time to File Financial Management Certificate and proposed Order on said Motion. If in such event the Court has already closed the case and denied the discharge, then Attorney would still require that $200.00 sum and need to prepare Motion and Order but would also be required to prepare an additional motion called a Motion to Reopen and a proposed Order on that, and would thus require yet an additional $200.00 sum for doing that work, and would also need an additional $260.00 to pay the court filing fee for a Motion to Reopen due to Client's failure to timely complete the 2nd credit counseling course, in which case Client would spend up to an additional $660.00 to have the case reopened and the necessary documents completed to obtain a discharge.

Client further understands and agrees that a failure by Client to substantially and timely perform any of Client's Responsibilities listed in Section 3, subsection (M.) or (N.), on the foregoing page of this Agreement may result in either a delay in the filing of Client's bankruptcy case or in an inability by Client to be qualify or to otherwise be able to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. Further, Client understands that the same failure may result in an additional charge by $200.00 by Attorney to be paid before further work is done and the case is filed since, due to the delay and the passage of time, Attorney would have to perform further work updating Client's bankruptcy documents, particularly those related to income, before Attorney could file Client's bankruptcy case.

Client understands that the situations stated above on this page where Client would be required to pay Attorney amounts in addition to the retainer amount stated in this Agreement are uncommon and can be avoided if Client heeds Attorney's advice and fully and timely performs Client's responsibilities under the terms of this Agreement.

Finally, Client understands that, and acknowledges that he has been advised by Attorney that, Client is to be honest and fully disclose all assets (i.e., property Client owns), liabilities (i.e., creditors or persons to which Client owes money), sources of income (e.g., job, support from other person, or income from government), and living expenses, with accuracy. While Attorney does represent Client, both Attorney and Client do have a duty by law to honestly and accurately disclose these items and facts to the Court. Further, Client shall disclose any change in circumstances as to any of the same (assets, liabilities, income, or living expenses) prior to filing or during the pendency of the case.

4. DOCUMENTATION THAT ATTORNEY REQUIRES CLIENT PRODUCE TO ATTORNEY

The “Dozen Things” List:

Prior to Attorney’s filing of Client’s bankruptcy petition, Client shall provide Attorney with copies of the following documents, which are needed by Attorney to draft Client’s bankruptcy petition:

- (1) DRIVER’S LICENSE (or other form of photo identification if you have no driver’s license);
- (2) SOCIAL SECURITY CARD (not filed as public record, but Court must confirm number);
- (3) TAX RETURNS, both federal and state, for the last 2 tax years (if you cannot access these documents, you must sign an IRS Tax Transcript Request form provided to you by Attorney);
- (4) DIVORCE OR DOMESTIC SUPPORT ORDER, if divorced within the last 2 years, regardless of any ongoing Court orders, or if currently Court-ordered to pay alimony or child support to anyone;
- (5) PAYSTUBS for the last 6 months from any employer you worked for during that time (if you didn’t save them, you will need to obtain a summary printout from the employer);
- (6) OTHER INCOME DOCUMENTATION, including at least one document as to child support, alimony, pension or retirement income, social security or veteran’s benefits;
- (7) TITLES to all automobiles, motorcycles, boats, etc., on which your name appears;
- (8) MORTGAGES AND/OR DEEDS containing the legal description for any real property, house or land on which your name appears;
- (9) ACCOUNT STATEMENTS, covering the last 3 months (or annual quarter), for any checking, savings, investment, 401(k), Roth IRA, or other retirement account on which you are named;
- (10) EXPENSE DOCUMENTATION covering the last 3 months of any utility bill, car payment, house payment, childcare or other expense you regularly make, and also any receipts you may have saved showing food and gasoline purchases [Much of this information will appear in your bank account statements, but do your best to round up what you can];
- (11) DEBT STATEMENTS, whether recent or not, for any debts which Client seeks to discharge, credit card, medical, [Of course, many will appear on your credit report too].
- (12) BANKRUPTCY CLIENT INTERVIEW FORM, filled out and completed by Client.

5. PAYMENT

Client understands that Attorney will prepare client’s Chapter 7 bankruptcy, attend the meeting of the creditors, execute any necessary reaffirmation agreements which Attorney determines to be in Client’s best interests, and respond to any reasonable requests of the U.S. trustee for a flat fee of $1,335.00. Of those funds received by Attorney, $335.00 is used to pay the Court filing fee. However, fees charged by credit counseling agencies are not paid out of those funds, unless Client uses www.debtorcc.org in which case Attorney will provide Client with a coupon code saving Client and costing Attorney about $25. Unless that agency is used, Client pays for the courses, apart from the agreed amounts Client pays Attorney; and Client pays any credit counseling agency directly and not through Attorney. Although Client does not have to pay the entire retainer amount upfront, Client agrees and understands that Attorney will not file the case until Attorney’s total fee is paid in full and Client and is otherwise in compliance with this Section 5 of this Agreement. Attorney will pay for a credit report too, costing Attorney $25 per person (As such, of the $1,335 paid, Attorney earns $950 for a single person and $925 for a married couple filing jointly). Further, Client agrees and understands that Attorney will not prepare Client’s documents and do any other work on Client’s case if Client has not paid Attorney at least $500.00 of the total $1,335.00 retainer amount upfront, which amount would go toward Attorney’s work and certainly not the filing fee. Finally, Client agrees and understands that if Client retains Attorney and puts down some money toward the bankruptcy but not the full sum sufficient to file the case, and then fails to comply with Section 3, subsection (M.) and (N.) above, then Client may forfeit Client’s money or be required to pay further funds per the last paragraph under Section 4 of this Agreement.

BANKRUPTCY INFORMATION SHEET

BANKRUPTCY LAW IS A FEDERAL LAW. THIS SHEET GIVES YOU SOME GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT WHAT HAPPENS IN A BANKRUPTCY CASE. THE INFORMATION HERE IS NOT COMPLETE. YOU MAY NEED LEGAL ADVICE.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO INDIVIDUAL DEBTORS: All individual debtors, must provide photo identification and proof of social security number to the trustee at the meeting of creditors. Failure to do so may result in your case being dismissed.

WHEN YOU FILE BANKRUPTCY:

You can choose the kind of bankruptcy that best meets your needs:

Chapter 7 - A trustee is appointed to take over your property. Any property of value will be sold or turned into money to pay your creditors. You may be able to keep some personal items and possibly real estate depending on the law of the state where you live.

Chapter 13 - You can usually keep your property, but you must earn wages or have some other source of regular income and you must agree to pay part of your income to your creditors. The Court must approve your repayment plan and your budget. A trustee is appointed and will collect the payments from you, pay your creditors, and make sure you live up to the terms of your repayment plan.

Chapter 12 - Like chapter 13, but it is only for family farmers.

Chapter 11 - This is used mostly by businesses. In chapter 11, you may continue to operate your business, but your creditors and the court must approve a plan to repay your debts. There is no trustee unless the judge decides that one is necessary; if a trustee is appointed, the trustee takes control of your business and property.

If you have already filed bankruptcy under chapter 7, you may be able to change your case to another chapter.

Your bankruptcy may be reported on your credit record for as long as ten years. It can affect your ability to receive credit in the future.

WHAT IS A BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE AND HOW DOES IT OPERATE?

One of the reasons people file bankruptcy is to get a "discharge". A discharge is a Court order stating that you do not have to pay most of your debts. Some debts cannot be discharged. For example, you cannot discharge debts for

- most taxes;
- child support;
- most student loans;
- Court fines and criminal restitution; and
- personal injury caused by driving drunk or under the influence of drugs.

The discharge only applies to debts that arose before the date you filed.

Also, if the Judge finds that you received money or property by fraud, that debt may not be discharged.

It is important to list all your property and debts in your bankruptcy schedules. If you do not list a debt, for example, it is possible the debt will not be discharged.

The Judge can also deny your discharge if you do something dishonest in connection with your bankruptcy case, such as destroy or hide property, falsify records or lie, or if you disobey a Court order.

You can only receive a chapter 7 discharge once every eight years. No one can make you pay a debt that has been discharged, but you can voluntarily pay any debt you wish to pay. You do not have to sign a reaffirmation agreement or any other kind of document to do this.

Some creditors hold a secured claim (for example, the bank that holds the mortgage on your house or the loan company that has a lien on your car). You do not have to pay a secured claim if the debt is discharged, but the creditor can still take the property.

WHAT IS A REAFFIRMATION AGREEMENT?

Even if a debt can be discharged, you may have special reasons why you want to promise to pay it. For example, you may want to work out a plan with the bank to keep your car. To promise to pay that debt, you must sign and file a reaffirmation agreement with the Court. Reaffirmation agreements are under special rules and are voluntary. They are not required by bankruptcy law or by any other law. Reaffirmation agreements--

- must be voluntary;
- must not place too heavy a burden on you or your family;
- must be in your best interest; and
- can be canceled anytime before the Court issues your discharge or within 60 days after the agreement is filed with the Court, whichever gives you the most time.

If you are an individual and you are not represented by an attorney, the Court must hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the reaffirmation agreement. The agreement will not be legally binding until the Court approves it.

If you reaffirm a debt and then fail to pay it, you owe the debt the same as though there was no bankruptcy. The debt will not be discharged and the creditor can take action to recover any property on which it has a lien or mortgage. The creditor can also take legal action to recover a judgment against you.

IF YOU WANT MORE INFORMATION OR HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT HOW THE BANKRUPTCY LAWS AFFECT YOU, YOU MAY NEED LEGAL ADVICE. THE TRUSTEE IN YOUR CASE IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR GIVING YOU LEGAL ADVICE.

11 U.S.C. § 527(a)(2) DISCLOSURE

Under 11 U.S.C. § 527(a)(2), a debt relief agency is required to provide the following written notice to assisted persons filing bankruptcy. You must read and understand the following disclosure and sign where indicated.

You, as an assisted person filing bankruptcy, shall know and understand that:

- A. all information that you are required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful;
- B. all assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in section 506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value;
- C. current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with section 707(b)(2)), are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry; and
- D. information that an assisted person provides during their case may be audited pursuant to this title, and that failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including criminal sanction.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of this disclosure required by 11 U.S.C. § 527(a)(2). I/We have read and understand its contents and the implications associated with failing to honestly provide information about our income, expenses, property, and other financial circumstances.

U.S.C. § 527(B) DISCLOSURE

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER.

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.

If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of this disclosure required by 11 U.S.C. § 527(b).

STATEMENT REGARDING DOCUMENTS REQUESTED BY ATTORNEY

I hereby certify that prior to the filing of my Chapter 7 bankruptcy case, my Attorney insisted that I produce to his office, at a minimum, a copy of the following documents:

- (1) DRIVER'S LICENSE (or other photo identification if you have no driver's license);
- (2) SOCIAL SECURITY CARD (not filed as public record, but Court must confirm number);
- (3) TAX RETURNS, both federal and state, for the last 2 tax years (if you cannot access these documents, you must sign an IRS Tax Transcript Request form provided to you by Attorney);
- (4) DIVORCE OR DOMESTIC SUPPORT ORDER, if divorced within the last 2 years, regardless of any ongoing Court orders, or if currently Court-ordered to pay alimony or child support to anyone;
- (5) PAYSTUBS for the last 6 months from any employer you worked for during that time (if you didn't save them, you will need to obtain a summary printout from the employer);
- (6) OTHER INCOME DOCUMENTATION, including at least one document as to child support, alimony, pension or retirement income, social security or veteran's benefits;
- (7) TITLES to all automobiles, motorcycles, boats, etc., on which your name appears;
- (8) MORTGAGES AND/OR DEEDS containing the legal description for any real property, house or land on which your name appears;
- (9) ACCOUNT STATEMENTS, covering the last 3 months (or annual quarter), for any checking, savings, investment, 401(k), or retirement account on which you are named;
- (10) EXPENSE DOCUMENTATION covering the last 3 months of any utility bill, car payment, house payment, childcare or other expense you regularly make, and also any receipts you may have saved showing food and gasoline purchases [Much of this information will appear in your bank account statements, but do your best to round up what you can];
- (11) DEBT STATEMENTS, whether recent or not, for any debts which Client seeks to discharge, credit card, medical, [Of course, many will appear on your credit report too].
- (12) BANKRUPTCY CLIENT INTERVIEW FORM, filled out and completed by Client.

I/we have attempted to provide my attorney with a copy of any of the documents above that my attorney, Joel K. Mitchell, requested that was applicable to me/us. If I/we failed to provide my Attorney with any such documents, it was because the document was not in my/our possession and I/we was/were unable to obtain it with reasonable efforts or at a reasonable cost.

Court-approved Credit Counseling Agencies

Select one, call them or locate them online, and ask or look for “Pre-bankruptcy credit counseling” or “Pre-petition credit counseling.”

You or the agency may fax the Certificate of Completion to me at (918) 371-1895 and/or e-mail it to me at jkm@joelkmitchell.com.

For clients with internet access, please note that doing the counseling online is cheaper than doing it over the telephone. I currently recommend doing both the 1st and 2nd credit counseling at <http://www.debtorcc.org>. At only $14.95 for the 1st course and $9.95 for the second course, it is among least expensive credit-counseling agencies on this list. Also, if you use that agency, it's free for you and on me. Just enter attorney code “jkm918cc” for the 1st course and “jkm918edu” for the 2nd course and save you $24.90. You're certainly welcome to use whomever you want and pay for it yourself. Some are as high as $50, but I have left the expensive agencies off this list. Unfortunately, I do not know the price for each agency, as this list is updated annually; and some come, and some go. Regardless, please note that you will be required to do a 2nd credit counseling course within a few months after the filing of the case, and you may go back to the same agency with whom you did the 1st counseling or use a difference agency. But do not worry about that course for now. Focus on getting this first course done, because I cannot file your bankruptcy case until you have completed it. It is one to two hours of your time. And while the agency will typically send a me your Certificate of Counseling upon completion, be sure to forward me a copy of that Certificate to me yourself, in order to ensure I received it. Every person who files must do the credit counseling sessions – no exceptions.
